

Social Media Privacy

CBD College's employees shall not require or request a student, prospective student, or student group to disclose a user name or password for accessing personal social media, to access personal social media in the presence of an employee or representative, or to divulge any personal social media information.